OrigAugust2012 Revised 2016Updated 2018 with administrative title changes.

University of Scranton

Cabinet Liaisons: Roles and Responsibilities

The role of Cabinet Liaison was created in 2006 in response to a need for better communication between the President's Cabinet and general administration and the individual representative senates; in addition, as part of the creation of the University Governance Co(UnGiC) the convener of that group was charged with serving as liaison for the UGC to the cabinet. All appointments to the role of Cabinet Liaison are made the President of the University. The following positions currestly as liaisons:

- x Provost &Senior Vice President for Academic Affai@onvener, UGC; Cabinet Liaison for the UGC
- x Provost & Senior Vice President for Academic Affair & abinet Liais of for the Faculty Senate
- x VicePresident for Student LifeCabinet Liaison for the Student Senate
- x Vice President for Human ResourceSabinet Liaison for the Staff Senate

The role and responsibilities for each Cabinet Liaison is as follows:

- x Serve as pmary conduit for information flow from the President's Cabinet to the respective senate/governance body. Determine what information from Cabinet is relevant to the discussions of the senate/governance body.
- x Serve as primary conduit for information flow in the senate/governance body to the Cabinet. Determine what information from senate/governance body is relevant to Cabinet discussions. Apprise the Cabinet of current topics and issues on the agenda of the senate/governance body that may impact current of uture planning and policy discussions. Present questions that may emerge in senate/governance discussions to the Calbinetlarification or response. Serve as an advocate for the senate constituency to the Cabinet.
- x Present/deliver requests from of so or groups on campus for senate/governance body review or consultation on policy or relevant topical issues.
- x Observe the progress of the senate/governance body toward meeting goals and objectives. Assists senate/governance group leadership, upon their request, in resolving issues that may arise.
- x Supportssenate/governance group leadership and naintaining knowledge about campus governance and act as a resource for senate/governance group on the role and functions of the University's governance system consultation with the Provost and the AM anning & Institutional Effectiveness Office, whip novides governance and policy upport. May attend UGC meetings as needed.

¹ Prior to 2011, the Cabinet was referred to as the Administrators' Conference. Governance documents prior to that year may refer to the Administrators' Conference as a group, and liaisons may be referred to as AC Liaisons. This document updated in 2016 to reflect the transition of governance oversight from the VP Planning & CIO to the Provost & Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs.