

---

procedures throughout the University. May include policies that are required of the University by way of federal legislation or other mandates.

- Govern institutional procedures
- Widespread application: guides work of the campus as a whole
- Changes less frequently, and then only through formal policy review process (University Governance Council review). Approval rests with President's Cabinet and/or the University President.
- Expressed in broad terms

Inter divisional Policies: guidelines that inform practices and procedures created by a division. They be vetted or approved through formal University policy review process

- Changes at discretion of the division head, with consultation as needed

Divisional Policies: the general guidelines that inform decision making and the development of procedures within a specific division of the University. Student conduct policies are divisional policies within Student Life. Academic policies are divisional policies within Academic Affairs.

- Govern divisional procedures or processes
- Has application only within the division
- Changes less frequently, and then only through the division's

